Chef

The chef, or cook, is the person who prepares and cooks food in restaurants, hotels, coffee shops, and other places that sell food. He is responsible for creating the menu items, cooking food, and supervising the helpers and other kitchen workers.

For his job, the chef uses kitchen equipment such as pots, pans, knives, ladles, and tableware. He also uses blenders, mixers, ovens, and stoves.

The chef wears a cap to gather his hair and non-slip footwear to avoid accidents. His uniform should always be clean.
