

In the middle of my head

I have a horn.

I am big and fat

so I am not a unicorn.

What am I?

I am inside the house,

Hunting everyday for a gray little mouse.

What am I?

I have no legs but

I am not a fish.

I have scales but

I do not weigh things.

What am I?

I move very slowly

across the ground.

In your garden protected

by a shell I can be found.

What am I?
