

I am always on at night,
but not usually in the day.

I might be with you if you nap.

Then you put me away.

©The Learning Patio-Dos Idiomas

I'm used to block the sun.

I'm like a hat.

I'm found on your head.

But rhyme with tap.

When tied, they leave.

When untied, they stay.

They come as a pair.

What are they, can you say?

I can be made of fur

And sometimes leather.

You'll want to have me in the cold weather.

