

I'm a letter of the alphabet that people drink. I am put in little bags for people to soak in water.

You can decorate me
with colors, paint or pen.
You can eat me scrambled
And I am laid by a hen.

I am shaped like a pear
But my skin is like leather.
I have great, big seed
on the inside.

Although, my name is as short as a cow,
I don't graze in a field,
I swim in the ocean.
