

What did Cesar Chávez decide to do when he turned 25?

---

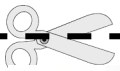

---

---

---

Cesar Chávez quit school at 15 to work in the fields to help support his family. He later joined the Navy for two years. After marrying Helen Fabela, he returned to work in the fields. At 25 he decided he wanted to do something to improve the lives of migrant farm workers.

How did César Chávez try to help the farm workers?

---

---

---

---

Cesar Chávez founded the National Farm Workers Association and led farm workers in strikes and boycotts to protest the poor working conditions of the farm workers.