

Name _____

Date _____

Pharmacist

The pharmacist works in pharmacies found in stores, hospitals, and clinics. The pharmacist might also work in laboratories dedicated to manufacturing medicines.

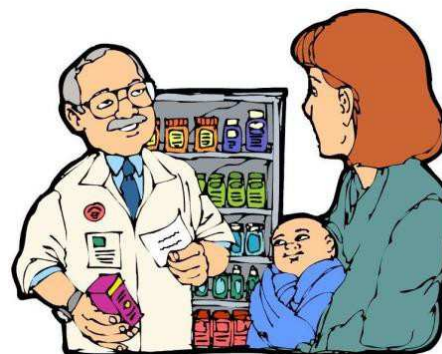

He/she is responsible for reviewing prescriptions and advising patients when they buy some kinds of medicine. He tells patients how to take the prescription drugs and answers questions that patients have about the medicine.

The pharmacist can also prepare some special medications following the doctor's instructions.

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

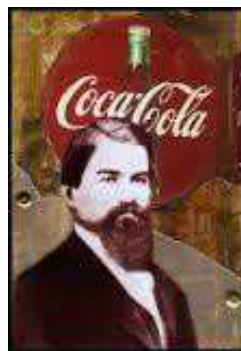

1. Where does the pharmacist work?

- A. in cinemas
- B. in pharmacies
- C. in schools
- D. in restaurants

2. The pharmacist explains to patients how to take ____.

- A. prescription drugs
- B. soda pop
- C. exams
- D. the attendance

Did you know ____?

John Pemberton was a pharmacist who was seeking a cure for headaches. In 1885, he produced a tonic that later became the most used drink in the world after water: Coca Cola.

3. Who reviews the prescriptions?

- A. firefighters
- B. police officers
- C. pharmacists
- D. teachers

4. What was the profession of John Pemberton, inventor of Coca Cola?

- A. postman
- B. painter
- C. real estate agent
- D. pharmacist

