Police

The police serve and protect people. They take care of the community day and night to ensure public order, security, and that people obey the law.

They know how to use firearms, they help people in situations of emergency, and they find and arrest criminals. They can patrol the streets on foot, in vehicles, on bicycles, or even on horseback. The equipment used by the police include pistols, handcuffs, and patrol cars. They also wear bulletproof vests to protect themselves.

You can identify a police officer because they wear a special uniform. If you are ever in trouble, you can always ask a police officer for help.
