

Inquiry Question	The Gist		Significant Moment	Author's Craft
Questions Before, During, and After Reading Before What does the cover and title tell me about the story?            Will it be a real or imaginary story?            What do I know about the topic?            What characters will be in the story?            Can I make predictions about the story glancing through the book? During What is this story about?            What does the main character want?            How would you feel if you were the main character?            Can you predict how the main character will get what they want?            What would you have done if you were the main character?            What picture is the author painting in my head? After What was the author's purpose in writing the book?            What do I understand from what I just read?            What is the main idea?            Do I need to reread to understand?            Can I retell the story?            Which of my predictions were right?            What connections can I make to the text?            What was my favorite part of the book?            What would you change in the story?	Who character	What problem	Text to World How the text read relates to the larger world. What I just read reminds me of what's going on in the world now because... Text to Self What was read relates to the reader. This reminds me of...            I had a similar experience and can relate.            I do not agree (I agree) with this because... Text to Text The text reminds the reader of another text. What I just read reminds me of another book/story/poem I read because...	The techniques that an author uses to relay a message Tone, mood, flashback, imagery, irony, word choice, and dialogue Figurative language: A way of saying one thing and meaning something else <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Metaphor: An implied comparison between two unlike things</li> <li>• Simile: Comparison made between two unlike things using the words "like" or "as"</li> <li>• Idiom: Expression, word, or phrase that has a figurative meaning</li> <li>• Personification: To give human qualities to abstract ideas, animals, and inanimate objects</li> <li>• Hyperbole: Exaggeration</li> </ul>
	Where setting	When Time Date Period		Author's Purpose
	Why	How		<table border="0"> <tr> <td align="center">Entertain</td> <td align="center">Persuade</td> </tr> <tr> <td align="center">Narrate</td> <td align="center">Describe</td> </tr> <tr> <td align="center" colspan="2">Inform / Teach</td> </tr> </table>	Entertain	Persuade	Narrate	Describe	Inform / Teach
	Entertain	Persuade
Narrate	Describe
Inform / Teach
Write the GIST in 20 words or less: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Find the most important WHO or WHAT.</li> <li>2. Find the most important THING about who or what.</li> <li>3. Put the most important "who or what" and then put the most important information about the "who or what" to form the main idea statement.</li> </ol>		Author's Point of View The author: Writes the book The narrator: Tells the story First person point of view: When the narrator is the main character or a secondary character who spends time with the main character Third Person Point of View: When the narrator tell the story but is not part of it								