

WHO

World Health Organization

A part of the United Nations that deals with major health issues around the world.

Community spread

Person-to-person spread means you know who spread the disease through direct contact or through the air from coughing or sneezing.

Community spread means that you do not know who spread the disease.

Zoonotic disease

A disease spread between animals and people.

