

The Water Cycle

Cut the sentences.
Glue them in order.

The sun heats the water.

← Glue here →

← Glue here →

← Glue here →

← Glue here →

The water vapor cools and forms clouds (condensation).

The drops of water fall in the form of rain (precipitation).

The water vapor rises to the sky (evaporation).

The water runs off (runoff) until it arrives at a lake or the ocean (collection).