

Name _____

Date _____

Homonyms

Words that sound the same and are spelled the same but have different meanings.

BAT

Bat: a mammal that flies at night	Bat: an object with a handle used to a ball.
Watch: look at	Watch: a small timepiece
Park: large green area of land for recreation	Park: bring a vehicle to a halt and leave it
Sink: go below the surface of	Sink: a basin for keeping or using water
Ring: jewelry worn on the finger	Ring: shape of a circle
Rose: move in upward direction	Rose: a kind of flower with thorns
Foot: unit of measurement	Foot: lower extremity used to walk
Trip: fall over something	Trip: vacation
Wave: move hand to and fro in greeting	Wave: body of water in arched form
Duck: waterfowl that says quack	Duck: lower the head
Tie: form a knot or bow	Tie: object worn around the neck made of cloth
Fly: move through the air with wings	Fly: pesty insect
Punch: drink made with fruit juice	Punch: hit something with your fist
Play: performance with actors	Play: to have fun
Tire: need rest	Tire: round rubber object that goes on a wheel