

Name _____

Date _____

Homonyms

Words that sound the same and are spelled the same but have different meanings.

Fill in the circle of the two sentences that contain the homonym of the underlined word in the main sentence.

1. They served fruit punch at his birthday party.

- I am going to punch a hole in this paper.
- You should never punch your friend.
- When is the punch coming? I am thirsty.

2. His mother would not let him go to the park.

- Please park the car and come inside.
- Jane went to the park so she could swing.
- Is it okay to park my bicycle here while I play?

3. Wave when you leave because I will miss you.

- Mom always waves when she sees me coming.
- Did you see him on top of that big wave?
- My brother rides the waves on his surfboard.

4. Mother will need about a foot of material to make that dress.

- His brother's foot is bigger than his mom's.
- The pipe measured one foot two inches in length.
- Cinderella slid her foot into the shoe for the prince.

5. Grandfather always carries his watch in his vest pocket.

- I want a new watch for my birthday this year.
- Jude will watch as his sister dives into the pool.
- What shows do you watch on Tuesday nights?

