Your Turn

Tina's mother woke with a start and looked at the nightstand clock. Oh no, the alarm had not gone off, and she overslept. Now, if they did not hurry, the children would be late for school. She called Tina and her brother Jonathan and told them to get up and get dressed as quickly as they could. She headed to the kitchen to make breakfast for everyone. Suddenly, she remembered she had not packed their lunches the night before. Oh, dear! This was going to be a challenging morning.

When the children arrived in the kitchen, Mother told them to quickly eat their breakfast, and then she would need their help. While Tina and Jonathan ate, Mother gathered all the lunch ingredients and placed them in a row on the kitchen counter. When they finished eating, she explained that they were going to pack the lunches in an assembly line style. Mother prepared the peanut butter and jelly sandwiches and passed them to Jonathan. He put each sandwich into a plastic bag and passed it down the line to Tina. Tina's job was to put the sandwich, a piece of fruit, and a juice box into each of their lunch boxes.

While they worked, their mother told them it was just like being on Henry Ford's assembly line.

"Who's Henry Ford?" asked Tina.

"Quick, grab your lunches. I'll tell you all about Mr. Ford in the car on the way to school," said Mother, and off they went in a flurry.
