

She had a big mouth with thick lips and very white teeth that were well placed and strong. She never forgets to brush her teeth after she eats. Maybe that's the reason, as well as not eating a lot of sugar that her teeth are so healthy.

The first time I met Lola, I knew right away that she was unique. Her way of being is sweet and affectionate. She always has good things to say about everyone and never loses her smile, even in the worst moments. She treats her friends as if they were her family. She has no enemies because we all adore her.

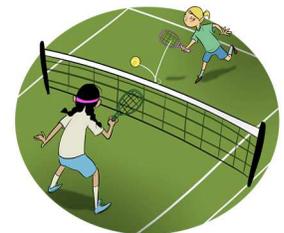

She is energetic and brave. Nothing scares her. She is talkative and talks to everyone. She is not usually lazy, but sometimes she likes to be on the couch doing nothing. She enjoys her puppies and their company.

Lola is naughty and restless, but she doesn't do bad things. She is impulsive and somewhat reckless, but she always obeys when she is told to. She is resourceful and observant. Whenever she can, she helps you out.

Sometimes, she doesn't like doing schoolwork; but since she's obedient, she does it without question. She is a dreamer and believes that in the future, many of her wishes and dreams will come true.

She is usually dressed in comfortable, sporty clothes, so that she can climb trees and play with her friends. She always looks neat and clean.

Sometimes, she likes to wear nice skirts and dresses, especially if she goes to a party or celebration with her family or friends. Her favorite hobbies are playing tennis, soccer, tree climbing, painting, and experimenting, and watching movies.

I love spending time with my friend, Lola. She is very special to me, and I love her millions. I hope our friendship lasts forever.
