

LOLA AND HER DOGS

Lola's dogs are her most precious treasure. They are an important part of Lola's life. She does not know how to live without her, and the dogs don't know how to live without Lola.

The first time Lola saw Patch move his big snout and wag his little tail, she fell in love with him. At that moment, she knew that he would be her faithful friend forever. She asked her mother if she could keep him and her mother said yes. They processed the papers and took him home.

Patch is a good dog, obedient, clean, and funny. He is can feel when his friend is sad or happy or if she has had a good day or a bad day. If he notices that something is wrong, he approaches Lola and licks her hand to encourage her. He is a very smart dog. His owner lets herself be loved and hugs him while they watch movies on the sofa or pets him while talking on the phone.

One day, Lola came home and realized that something was wrong with Patch. He was lying on the floor, motionless. He had hardly eaten anything, and his eyes were sad. Could he be sick? Lola quickly called her mom to see if they could get Patch over to the vet, so she could tell them what was wrong with him.
